

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heart-burn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at these will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of native American medicinal forest plants. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

HOUSE HELD A STORMY SESSION

Use of Pension Building for Inaugural Ball Bore of Contention.

Washington, Jan. 11.—After a stormy discussion in the house today the resolution granting the use of the pension office for the inaugural ball went over for two weeks.

As it now stands, the section relating to the pension building was stricken out and a further amendment made requesting permission to extend overhead wires into the structure. It was manifest from the outset that a majority of those present were opposed to the pension office proposition, and Mr. Smith, Michigan, having the measure in charge was unable to rally his forces and in consequence was beaten at every turn.

Messrs. McMillan, New York, Olcott, New York, and Landis, Indiana, spoke in support of the measure, Mr. Landis contending that the inaugural expenses should be paid by congress, which he said had shifted the burden on to the shoulders of the citizens of Washington, who were compelled to conduct the ball in order to be partially reimbursed.

Speaker Cannon announced the committee of five which will conduct the investigation into the secret service, provided for by the resolutions of last Saturday. At 6 p. m. the house adjourned.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS
PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of Piles, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c.

NOTICE TO WATER USERS.
State Engineer's Office.
Salt Lake City, Utah, July 23, 1908.
Notice is hereby given that the Ogden Water Works company, by its manager, C. H. Kitcher, whose post office address is Ogden, Utah, has made application in accordance with the requirements of Chapter 108, Session Laws of Utah, 1907, to appropriate ten (10) cubic-feet per second of water from springs in Taylor's Canyon, Weber County, Utah.

Part of said water will be diverted from a spring which is situated at "point of diversion" No. 1, which bears north 62 degrees 48 minutes west 211.3 feet distant from the east corner of Section 35, Township 6 north, Range 1 west, Salt Lake base and conveyed to "point of diversion" No. 2, which bears north 71 degrees 3 minutes east 1540 feet distant from the corner above described. Part of said water will be diverted from a spring which is situated at "point of diversion" No. 3, which is 3,496.6 feet south 61 degrees 51 minutes east from the above described corner. Part of said water will be diverted from a spring which is situated at a point bearing north 43 degrees 21 minutes east 2820.6 feet distant from the point first above described; also from numerous small springs adjacent thereto and conveyed to "point of diversion" No. 4, which bears north 44 degrees 44 minutes east 2,583.2 feet distant from the quarter corner above described, where it will be diverted. At "point of diversion" No. 5, which bears north 51 degrees 32 minutes east 2,427.7 feet distant from the land corner above described, a part of said water will be collected from small springs situated in a side canyon which enters the main canyon at a point northeast of the "point of diversion" last above described. At "point of diversion" No. 6, which bears south 85 degrees 53 minutes east 5,233.3 feet distant from the land corner above described, the water which flows from a spring situated about 100 feet east of said "point of diversion" will be diverted. The remainder of the water applied for will be diverted at "point of diversion" No. 7, which bears south 69 degrees 7 minutes east 3,464.2 feet distant from the land corner above described, at which point the water from numerous small springs situated in two canyons which form the main canyon is to be collected and diverted. The water from the various sources above described will be collected and conveyed to a point near the west line of Section 36, township 6 north, Range 1 west, Salt Lake base and meridian, where it will be conveyed for about 20,000 feet by means of a pipe line to the reservoir of the applicant situated east of Ogden City, between 22nd and 23rd streets and from there it will be distributed during the period from January 1 to December 31, inclusive, of each year, by means of the present system of water works operated by the applicant and to be hereafter constructed and there used for municipal purposes. This application is designated in the State Engineer's office as No. 1709.

All protests against the granting of said application, stating the reasons therefor must be made by affidavit in duplicate and filed in this office within thirty (30) days after the completion of the publication of this notice.

CALEB TANNER, State Engineer.
Date of first publication, Dec. 26, 1908, date of completion of publication Jan. 25, 1909.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS ON PACIFIC COAST
Port Townsend, Wash., Jan. 11.—An earthquake shock caused considerable damage here at 3:50 this afternoon, lasting from ten to fifteen seconds. The tremor took the form of a vibratory concussion, swaying buildings and breaking many windows and fragile roofs. Reports from adjoining localities available by telephone state that the force of the shock extended over an area of at least fifty miles square, and in several districts two distinct shocks separated by more than a minute were felt. In many places in this city where water pipes had been frozen the earthquake broke the mains and flooded the houses. For a time it was feared the city's entire water supply would be shut off, so great was the damage being done. Officers at Fort Worden state the investigation so far made shows no apparent damage to the fortifications was caused, although both Fort Worden and Fort Flagler were badly shaken. The signal corps officers report the paring of the Alaskan cable several hours previous to the shock here. Investigation will be made to ascertain if there was any connection between the circumstances.

Bellingham, Jan. 11.—Bellingham, Wash., was shaken by an earthquake at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon. Buildings in all parts of town were jarred, but no damage was done. Hundreds of people rushed into the streets. The duration of the shock was about ten seconds. Some of the brick buildings were so badly shaken that the plaster fell to the floor, and in some places there was almost a panic as it was thought that the structures were tumbling to the ground. The reports of the trembler came in from all parts of the country. Only one shock was felt. It is reported that immediately after the shock smoke was seen arising from Mount Baker, an extinct or dormant volcano. At Blaine several buildings were slightly damaged by the trembler.

Seattle, Jan. 11.—Reports of a slight earthquake shock come here from Vancouver, Victoria, Sumas, Tacoma and Bellingham. The same trembler was felt here at 3:44 o'clock, and lasted from seven to thirty seconds, according to various reports from different points. No damage was done, but persons in some instances rushed from buildings.

Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 11.—At 3:44 this afternoon a distant shock of earthquake was felt in Vancouver and in many other cities on the coast. A telegram from Victoria says that buildings were shaken there to a noticeable degree. The shock lasted only ten to twenty seconds. No damage is said to have been done in any place.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 11.—A tremor of the earth was felt in Tacoma at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon. It lasted between ten and fifteen seconds.

Everett, Wash., Jan. 11.—Two distinct earthquake shocks were felt at 3:51 this afternoon in Everett and vicinity, traveling from east to west. No damage was done.

CARMICHAEL LEFT TWO LETTERS

To the Sheriff Explaining in Detail the Killing of Browning.

Carthage, Ill., Jan. 12.—Rev. John Carmichael, who murdered Browning, arrived here Friday evening and engaged board at the house of Miss Miranda Hughes.

He had no baggage with him and gave his name as John Elder, said he was a cabinet maker and thought of locating in Carthage. Saturday morning he telegraphed to Burlington for his valise and it was sent.

After breakfast he packed all his belongings in his valise and left his room in perfect order, paying his bill, and asked Miss Hughes to prepare a special breakfast for him, in an effort to get him to eat, but he continued to fast. He acted strangely but the landlady thought little of it.

After breakfast he packed all his belongings in his valise and left his room in perfect order, paying his bill, and asked Miss Hughes to prepare a special breakfast for him, in an effort to get him to eat, but he continued to fast. He acted strangely but the landlady thought little of it.

The doctors found that Carmichael had made a small wound in his breast, but the knife had not touched the jugular vein. If he had not remained so long in the cold and lost so much blood, the doctors say they could have restored him to consciousness, but as the thermometer stood almost at zero he had become so thoroughly chilled that he died at 12:40.

Coroner J. A. Barr ordered an inquest on Sheriff Bertical was given Carmichael's suit case containing two letters, one addressed to Mrs. Carmichael and the other to the sheriff. The latter to the sheriff follows:

"Carthage, Ill., Jan. 9.—To Mr. Waggoner, Port Huron, Mich.
"Honored Sir:—I write this letter to explain some things in connection with the Columbus church tragedy. I am guilty only because I am a coward. The man had such a hypnotic influence over me that I felt that something must be done. I felt greatly ashamed of a man said to be short-minded should be able to compel me to yield to his will, but I said nothing about it. At first he said: 'It's all right, Elder, don't be afraid.' Then he began to talk about how we two could get rich. These things came to the rear of my brain and tried to me through the narrow hole; twice he was at the river when I went to water my stock and each time I felt that he was doing something that he was proud of. Once when I was going out to Columbus, he was on the pike near the Pink schoolhouse. When I overtook him, he asked me to ride, which I could not refuse. He asked me if ever I had driven up the Pike to Port Huron, to which I answered no. Then he said 'These things came to me. I dissembled, but he kept on until he persuaded me to go. He got out and stood at the corner while I went to the barn with the rig. Then after we had been at the restaurant for food for which he paid and also for the horse, he gave me a half dollar and said he wanted me to go across there and buy a small hatchet for his boy to play with. I began to tell him to get on and do his own buying when he set his eyes upon me in the queerest sort of a look, something like the look of a snake's eyes. Then I felt his influence tightening his grip on my mind, so I went, intending to go into the store and out the back way to get the horse and rush off for home. When I turned to close the door he stood looking upon me through the window and I just bought the hatchet and came out again, but by that time he had disappeared, so I went to the barn, got my rig and started for home. Then, as I made the turn onto Military street, he was at the corner to go in. He rode as far as to South

EXTREME COLD
Bellingham, Wash., Jan. 11.—There are no indications of a break in the intense cold, the mercury varying from four degrees below zero to ten degrees above. Gas mains were found frozen today and manufacturing plants and newspapers are crippled badly.

The lumber and logging industries of Northwest Washington are completely paralyzed, but one lumber mill on Puget Sound being in operation, while every shingle mill is idle. Logging camps are all closed.

The Nooksack and Skagit rivers are frozen solid and navigation of these streams is impossible.

Federal and state fish hatcheries on both forks of the Nooksack, Baker river and Friday creek are freezing and stoves are being rushed to the stations to prevent the destruction of millions of salmon eggs and fry.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 11.—The cold spell, the longest in the history of the Seattle weather bureau, is broken. Fair weather and gradually rising temperature is predicted for tonight and tomorrow. The minimum temperature last night was 18.8 degrees above zero. Trains are within five hours of schedule time.

Great Falls, Jan. 11.—Laura, the eleven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Spear of Helena Flats, Flathead county, was frozen to death while returning from school. The same family lost a son by drowning in the Flathead river two months ago.

Great Falls, Mont., Jan. 11.—The cold spell has broken in the Falls. The thermometer went from forty below this morning to ten above this evening. A south wind is blowing and prospects are that the wind, which has fallen during the past week, will diminish. Stock weathered the cold spell very well and no losses are reported.

TREASURY BALANCES.
Washington, Jan. 11.—Today's statement of the treasury balances in the general fund, exclusive of the $159,000,000 gold reserve, shows:

Available cash balance, $159,021,475.
Gold coin and bullion, $28,595,239.
Gold certificates, $36,862,540.

MRS. GEORGE POUND.

Washington, Jan. 12.—One of the most charming wives of congressional Washington is Mrs. George W. Pound, wife of Congressman Pound of Buffalo, N. Y. Her pleasing personality has made her a great favorite among the congressional set.

BOSS BILL' TWEED'S TRUMPET IS FOUND
New York, Jan. 11.—A trumpet which has just been found in a sand pile along the East River, is declared by one of the few surviving members of volunteer engine company No. 6, as having been the one used by "Boss" Bill Tweed, formerly leader of Tammany Hall. Ed Brennan, the old fireman, says that Tweed, as foreman, led "Big Six" with the trumpet in the days of the rival volunteer fire companies, that he gave it to Brennan, and that it was lost forty years ago in a fire.

Mrs. Browning said she never knew Carmichael.

Mrs. Browning described the sale of her effects at Canandigua and how her husband disposed of all their property and had given her nothing.

A few days later, she continued, "he took all the money from the sale of our little garden spot and household effects and went back to Michigan."

Mrs. Browning said she never knew Carmichael.

Mrs. Browning described the sale of her effects at Canandigua and how her husband disposed of all their property and had given her nothing.

A few days later, she continued, "he took all the money from the sale of our little garden spot and household effects and went back to Michigan."

Mrs. Browning said she never knew Carmichael.

CARMICHAEL LEFT TWO LETTERS

To the Sheriff Explaining in Detail the Killing of Browning.

Carthage, Ill., Jan. 12.—Rev. John Carmichael, who murdered Browning, arrived here Friday evening and engaged board at the house of Miss Miranda Hughes.

He had no baggage with him and gave his name as John Elder, said he was a cabinet maker and thought of locating in Carthage. Saturday morning he telegraphed to Burlington for his valise and it was sent.

After breakfast he packed all his belongings in his valise and left his room in perfect order, paying his bill, and asked Miss Hughes to prepare a special breakfast for him, in an effort to get him to eat, but he continued to fast. He acted strangely but the landlady thought little of it.

The doctors found that Carmichael had made a small wound in his breast, but the knife had not touched the jugular vein. If he had not remained so long in the cold and lost so much blood, the doctors say they could have restored him to consciousness, but as the thermometer stood almost at zero he had become so thoroughly chilled that he died at 12:40.

Coroner J. A. Barr ordered an inquest on Sheriff Bertical was given Carmichael's suit case containing two letters, one addressed to Mrs. Carmichael and the other to the sheriff. The latter to the sheriff follows:

"Carthage, Ill., Jan. 9.—To Mr. Waggoner, Port Huron, Mich.
"Honored Sir:—I write this letter to explain some things in connection with the Columbus church tragedy. I am guilty only because I am a coward. The man had such a hypnotic influence over me that I felt that something must be done. I felt greatly ashamed of a man said to be short-minded should be able to compel me to yield to his will, but I said nothing about it. At first he said: 'It's all right, Elder, don't be afraid.' Then he began to talk about how we two could get rich. These things came to the rear of my brain and tried to me through the narrow hole; twice he was at the river when I went to water my stock and each time I felt that he was doing something that he was proud of. Once when I was going out to Columbus, he was on the pike near the Pink schoolhouse. When I overtook him, he asked me to ride, which I could not refuse. He asked me if ever I had driven up the Pike to Port Huron, to which I answered no. Then he said 'These things came to me. I dissembled, but he kept on until he persuaded me to go. He got out and stood at the corner while I went to the barn with the rig. Then after we had been at the restaurant for food for which he paid and also for the horse, he gave me a half dollar and said he wanted me to go across there and buy a small hatchet for his boy to play with. I began to tell him to get on and do his own buying when he set his eyes upon me in the queerest sort of a look, something like the look of a snake's eyes. Then I felt his influence tightening his grip on my mind, so I went, intending to go into the store and out the back way to get the horse and rush off for home. When I turned to close the door he stood looking upon me through the window and I just bought the hatchet and came out again, but by that time he had disappeared, so I went to the barn, got my rig and started for home. Then, as I made the turn onto Military street, he was at the corner to go in. He rode as far as to South

TREASURY BALANCES.
Washington, Jan. 11.—Today's statement of the treasury balances in the general fund, exclusive of the $159,000,000 gold reserve, shows:

Available cash balance, $159,021,475.
Gold coin and bullion, $28,595,239.
Gold certificates, $36,862,540.

MRS. GEORGE POUND.

Washington, Jan. 12.—One of the most charming wives of congressional Washington is Mrs. George W. Pound, wife of Congressman Pound of Buffalo, N. Y. Her pleasing personality has made her a great favorite among the congressional set.

BOSS BILL' TWEED'S TRUMPET IS FOUND
New York, Jan. 11.—A trumpet which has just been found in a sand pile along the East River, is declared by one of the few surviving members of volunteer engine company No. 6, as having been the one used by "Boss" Bill Tweed, formerly leader of Tammany Hall. Ed Brennan, the old fireman, says that Tweed, as foreman, led "Big Six" with the trumpet in the days of the rival volunteer fire companies, that he gave it to Brennan, and that it was lost forty years ago in a fire.

Mrs. Browning said she never knew Carmichael.

Mrs. Browning described the sale of her effects at Canandigua and how her husband disposed of all their property and had given her nothing.

A few days later, she continued, "he took all the money from the sale of our little garden spot and household effects and went back to Michigan."

Mrs. Browning said she never knew Carmichael.

Mrs. Browning described the sale of her effects at Canandigua and how her husband disposed of all their property and had given her nothing.

A few days later, she continued, "he took all the money from the sale of our little garden spot and household effects and went back to Michigan."

Mrs. Browning said she never knew Carmichael.

Mrs. Browning described the sale of her effects at Canandigua and how her husband disposed of all their property and had given her nothing.

A few days later, she continued, "he took all the money from the sale of our little garden spot and household effects and went back to Michigan."

Mrs. Browning said she never knew Carmichael.

Mrs. Browning described the sale of her effects at Canandigua and how her husband disposed of all their property and had given her nothing.

A few days later, she continued, "he took all the money from the sale of our little garden spot and household effects and went back to Michigan."

Mrs. Browning said she never knew Carmichael.

Mrs. Browning described the sale of her effects at Canandigua and how her husband disposed of all their property and had given her nothing.

A few days later, she continued, "he took all the money from the sale of our little garden spot and household effects and went back to Michigan."

CARMICHAEL LEFT TWO LETTERS

To the Sheriff Explaining in Detail the Killing of Browning.

Carthage, Ill., Jan. 12.—Rev. John Carmichael, who murdered Browning, arrived here Friday evening and engaged board at the house of Miss Miranda Hughes.

He had no baggage with him and gave his name as John Elder, said he was a cabinet maker and thought of locating in Carthage. Saturday morning he telegraphed to Burlington for his valise and it was sent.

After breakfast he packed all his belongings in his valise and left his room in perfect order, paying his bill, and asked Miss Hughes to prepare a special breakfast for him, in an effort to get him to eat, but he continued to fast. He acted strangely but the landlady thought little of it.

The doctors found that Carmichael had made a small wound in his breast, but the knife had not touched the jugular vein. If he had not remained so long in the cold and lost so much blood, the doctors say they could have restored him to consciousness, but as the thermometer stood almost at zero he had become so thoroughly chilled that he died at 12:40.

Coroner J. A. Barr ordered an inquest on Sheriff Bertical was given Carmichael's suit case containing two letters, one addressed to Mrs. Carmichael and the other to the sheriff. The latter to the sheriff follows:

"Carthage, Ill., Jan. 9.—To Mr. Waggoner, Port Huron, Mich.
"Honored Sir:—I write this letter to explain some things in connection with the Columbus church tragedy. I am guilty only because I am a coward. The man had such a hypnotic influence over me that I felt that something must be done. I felt greatly ashamed of a man said to be short-minded should be able to compel me to yield to his will, but I said nothing about it. At first he said: 'It's all right, Elder, don't be afraid.' Then he began to talk about how we two could get rich. These things came to the rear of my brain and tried to me through the narrow hole; twice he was at the river when I went to water my stock and each time I felt that he was doing something that he was proud of. Once when I was going out to Columbus, he was on the pike near the Pink schoolhouse. When I overtook him, he asked me to ride, which I could not refuse. He asked me if ever I had driven up the Pike to Port Huron, to which I answered no. Then he said 'These things came to me. I dissembled, but he kept on until he persuaded me to go. He got out and stood at the corner while I went to the barn with the rig. Then after we had been at the restaurant for food for which he paid and also for the horse, he gave me a half dollar and said he wanted me to go across there and buy a small hatchet for his boy to play with. I began to tell him to get on and do his own buying when he set his eyes upon me in the queerest sort of a look, something like the look of a snake's eyes. Then I felt his influence tightening his grip on my mind, so I went, intending to go into the store and out the back way to get the horse and rush off for home. When I turned to close the door he stood looking upon me through the window and I just bought the hatchet and came out again, but by that time he had disappeared, so I went to the barn, got my rig and started for home. Then, as I made the turn onto Military street, he was at the corner to go in. He rode as far as to South

TREASURY BALANCES.
Washington, Jan. 11.—Today's statement of the treasury balances in the general fund, exclusive of the $159,000,000 gold reserve, shows:

Available cash balance, $159,021,475.
Gold coin and bullion, $28,595,239.
Gold certificates, $36,862,540.

MRS. GEORGE POUND.

Washington, Jan. 12.—One of the most charming wives of congressional Washington is Mrs. George W. Pound, wife of Congressman Pound of Buffalo, N. Y. Her pleasing personality has made her a great favorite among the congressional set.

BOSS BILL' TWEED'S TRUMPET IS FOUND
New York, Jan. 11.—A trumpet which has just been found in a sand pile along the East River, is declared by one of the few surviving members of volunteer engine company No. 6, as having been the one used by "Boss" Bill Tweed, formerly leader of Tammany Hall. Ed Brennan, the old fireman, says that Tweed, as foreman, led "Big Six" with the trumpet in the days of the rival volunteer fire companies, that he gave it to Brennan, and that it was lost forty years ago in a fire.

Mrs. Browning said she never knew Carmichael.

Mrs. Browning described the sale of her effects at Canandigua and how her husband disposed of all their property and had given her nothing.

A few days later, she continued, "he took all the money from the sale of our little garden spot and household effects and went back to Michigan."

Mrs. Browning said she never knew Carmichael.

Mrs. Browning described the sale of her effects at Canandigua and how her husband disposed of all their property and had given her nothing.

A few days later, she continued, "he took all the money from the sale of our little garden spot and household effects and went back to Michigan."

Mrs. Browning said she never knew Carmichael.

Mrs. Browning described the sale of her effects at Canandigua and how her husband disposed of all their property and had given her nothing.

A few days later, she continued, "he took all the money from the sale of our little garden spot and household effects and went back to Michigan."

Mrs. Browning said she never knew Carmichael.

Mrs. Browning described the sale of her effects at Canandigua and how her husband disposed of all their property and had given her nothing.

A few days later, she continued, "he took all the money from the sale of our little garden spot and household effects and went back to Michigan."

Mrs. Browning said she never knew Carmichael.

Mrs. Browning described the sale of her effects at Canandigua and how her husband disposed of all their property and had given her nothing.

A few days later, she continued, "he took all the money from the sale of our little garden spot and household effects and went back to Michigan."

MEN BACK OF THE EMANUEL MOVEMENT, REV. DR. ELWOOD WORCESTER OF BOSTON AT RIGHT. DR. SAMUEL M'COMB AT LEFT.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 13.—The so-called "Emanuel movement" has gained the most remarkable foothold on the people of America in the two years of its life of any of the prophecies of a similar character ever known. The Emanuel movement originated with the Rev. Dr. Elwood Worcester, rector of Emanuel Episcopal church of this city. In spite of the severe attacks of the physicians on the one hand and the clergy on the other this "new thought," which endeavors to combine religion and medical practice, is steadily gaining ground. Offices have been established in New York city for the treatment of nervous disorders.

THE LATEST PICTURE OF DINUZULU AND HIS CHAMPION MISS COLENZO.

The Zulu chief, Dinuzulu, now on trial for high treason at Greytown, has received the help of no less a charming champion than Miss Colenzo, daughter of the bishop of Natal. Miss Colenzo resembles her father in her strong sympathies with the South African native. She has enthusiastically taken up the cause of Dinuzulu. The people of Zululand worship Miss Colenzo as they do no other mortal being. They, of course, feel that the trial is unjust and are very sanguine of Dinuzulu's ultimate release and vindication.